

MS EXCEL

Section A — Home Tab (10 MCQs)

Q1. In Excel 2010, which option allows you to copy formatting from one cell to another without copying its content?

- A) Paste Special
- B) Format Painter
- C) AutoFill
- D) Conditional Formatting

Q2. Which command combines selected cells and places the text at the centre of the combined area?

- A) Wrap Text
- B) Center Across Selection
- C) Merge & Center
- D) Increase Indent

Q3. If you apply Conditional Formatting to a range of marks, which feature can automatically highlight values below 40?

- A) Data Bars
- B) Highlight Cells Rules
- C) Cell Styles
- D) Format as Table

Q4. Which Paste Special option pastes only the result of a formula, not the formula itself?

- A) Formulas
- B) Formats
- C) Values
- D) Validation

Q5. Which command removes the cell's contents, formatting, and comments together?

- A) Delete Cells
- B) Clear Contents
- C) Clear Formats
- D) Clear All

Q6. What happens when you use Wrap Text on a cell containing a long sentence?

- A) The text is deleted after the cell width.

- B) The text appears on multiple lines within the cell.
- C) The cell merges with the next cell.
- D) The font size automatically becomes smaller in every case.

Q7. Which number format displays 0.25 as 25%?

- A) Accounting
- B) Fraction
- C) Percentage
- D) Scientific

Q8. Which option helps apply a predefined combination of formatting to a cell?

- A) Cell Styles
- B) Find & Select
- C) Sort & Filter
- D) Fill Series

Q9. What is the purpose of Increase Decimal?

- A) It increases the actual value stored in the cell.
- B) It displays more digits after the decimal point.
- C) It converts a number into text.
- D) It rounds the value to an integer.

Q10. Which option can replace every occurrence of “Delhi” with “Hisar” in a worksheet?

- A) Find
- B) Go To
- C) Replace
- D) Flash Fill

Section B — Insert Tab (10 MCQs)

Q11. Which chart is most suitable for showing the percentage contribution of different categories to a whole?

- A) Line Chart
- B) Pie Chart
- C) Scatter Chart
- D) Stock Chart

Q12. Which feature summarizes and analyzes a large dataset by arranging it into categories and calculating totals?

- A) PivotTable

- B) WordArt
- C) Text Box
- D) Screenshot

Q13. In Excel 2010, which option inserts small charts inside individual cells to show trends?

- A) Recommended Charts
- B) Sparklines
- C) PivotCharts
- D) Shapes

Q14. Which Sparkline type is best for showing the movement of values over time?

- A) Line
- B) Column
- C) Win/Loss
- D) Pie

Q15. You want to compare the sales of five products side by side. Which chart is generally most suitable?

- A) Pie Chart
- B) Column Chart
- C) Surface Chart
- D) Radar Chart

Q16. Which feature allows you to display data from a PivotTable in graphical form?

- A) SmartArt
- B) PivotChart
- C) Sparklines
- D) Screenshot

Q17. What is the main purpose of inserting a Text Box?

- A) To calculate totals
- B) To insert text in a movable, separate box
- C) To create a formula
- D) To sort data

Q18. Which command inserts a visual representation of a process, hierarchy, or relationship?

- A) SmartArt
- B) Hyperlink
- C) Symbol
- D) Header

Q19. Which chart is generally best for showing the relationship between two numerical variables?

- A) Pie Chart
- B) Doughnut Chart
- C) XY (Scatter) Chart
- D) Area Chart

Q20. If you insert a picture into a worksheet, which action generally allows you to change its dimensions?

- A) Use the picture's sizing handles
- B) Use Freeze Panes
- C) Use Data Validation
- D) Use Name Manager

Section C — Page Layout Tab (10 MCQs)

Q21. Which option changes the printed page from Portrait to Landscape?

- A) Size
- B) Orientation
- C) Margins
- D) Print Area

Q22. You want a worksheet to print on one page wide, even if it has many columns. Which setting should you adjust?

- A) Scale to Fit — Width
- B) Row Height
- C) Freeze Panes
- D) Wrap Text

Q23. Which feature allows you to specify exactly which cells should be printed?

- A) Page Break Preview
- B) Print Area
- C) Print Titles
- D) Themes

Q24. Which option repeats selected row headings at the top of every printed page?

- A) Print Titles
- B) Page Borders
- C) Orientation
- D) Arrange

Q25. What is the primary purpose of Page Breaks?

- A) To split text within a cell
- B) To control where printed pages begin and end
- C) To divide a worksheet into separate files
- D) To freeze rows during scrolling

Q26. Which setting creates more printable space by reducing the blank space around the page edges?

- A) Themes
- B) Margins
- C) Print Titles
- D) Gridlines

Q27. What does the Print Gridlines option control?

- A) Whether worksheet cell gridlines appear in print
- B) Whether formulas are printed
- C) Whether borders are removed from cells
- D) Whether columns are hidden

Q28. Which feature adds faint text or an image behind worksheet content, such as a company logo?

- A) Page Color
- B) Background
- C) Cell Styles
- D) Format Painter

Q29. If a worksheet is too wide for a single printed page, which combination is most likely to help?

- A) Portrait orientation and larger margins
- B) Landscape orientation and Scale to Fit
- C) Larger font and increased row height
- D) Wrap Text and Merge & Center

Q30. Which Page Layout option changes the paper size, for example from A4 to Letter?

- A) Orientation
- B) Size
- C) Margins
- D) Breaks